Announces auditions for: PRINCIPAL SECOND VIOLIN

This is paid independent contractor position. The successful candidate will receive an IRS 1099 statement each year from Denver Philharmonic Orchestra (DPO). Pay is per service and Agreements are renewed season-by-season.

Principal strings are expected to attend all rehearsals and concerts over the September to May concert season. DPO performs seven to nine concerts per season with rehearsals primarily, but not exclusively, on Monday and Wednesday nights. Please review the 2022-23 Schedule to assess your availability to perform with the DPO before submitting an audition request.

Along with leading their section, other key responsibilities of all string principals include: adapting their bowings to those supplied by the concertmaster and distributing their bowings to their section one to two weeks before the first rehearsal of each concert cycle; leading string sectional rehearsals; coaching members of their section in order to improve each member's performance; keeping on top of section member absences and ensuring the personnel manager is aware of all absences in your section; assisting the Orchestra in reasonable fundraising activities to benefit the organization; and communicating any rehearsal or concert cancellations to their section members.
